The Viking was a proud member of the Scandinavian sea rovers. He was adventurous and loved the thrill of fighting and war. In addition, he and fellow daring and skillful seamen were the best shipbuilders in Europe. Although Viking invasions were at first simply acts of piracy, they led to important settlements throughout Europe.

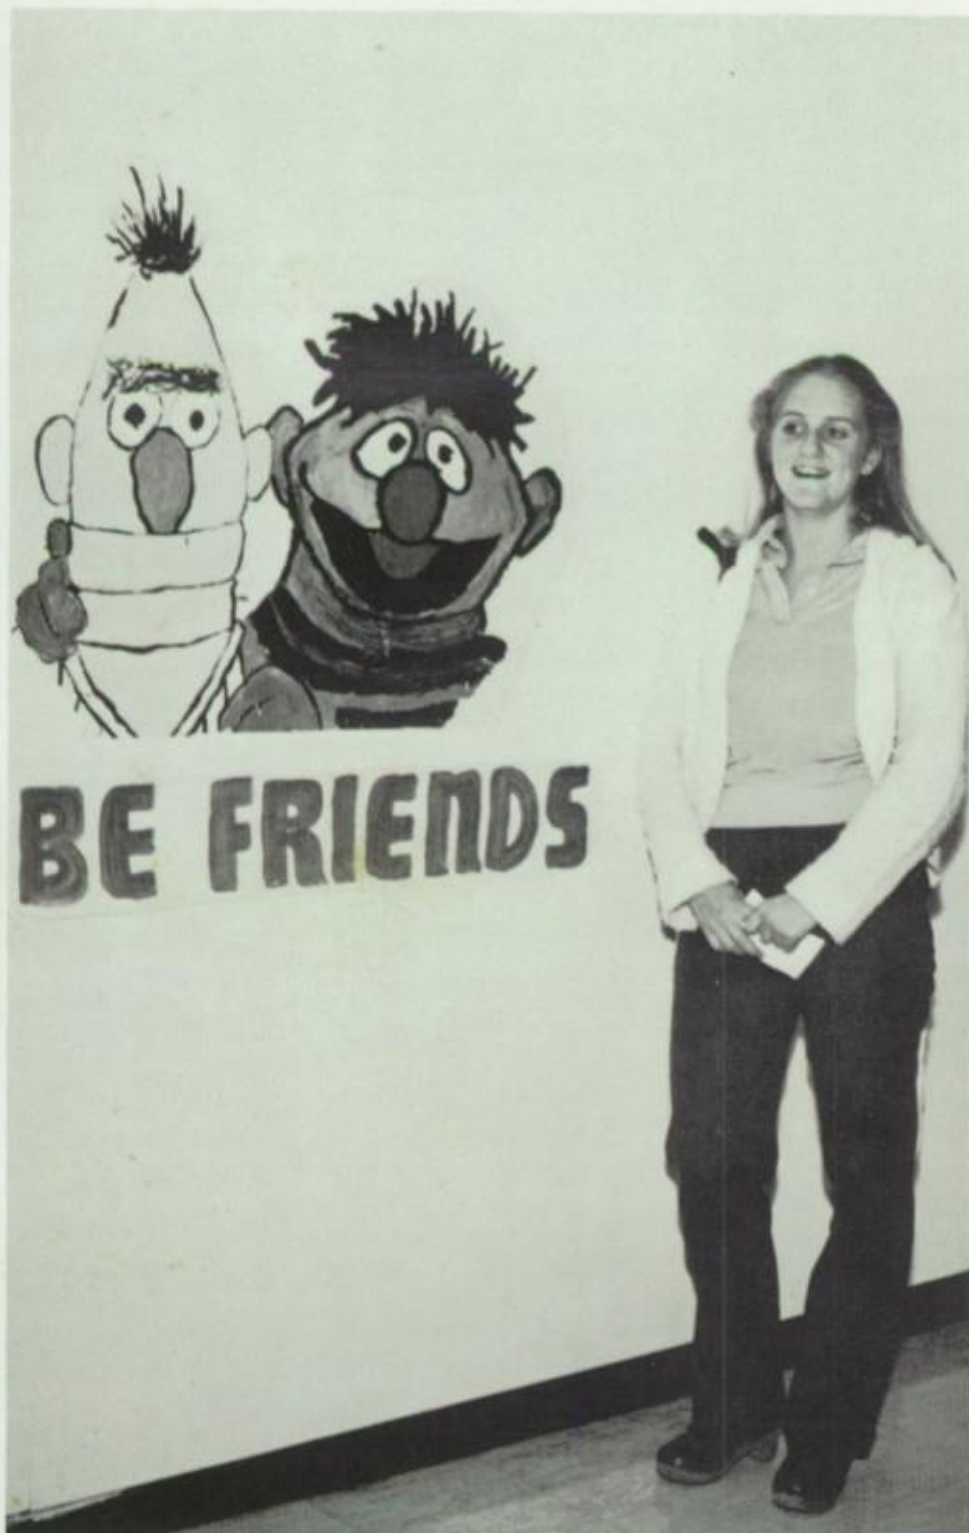

The Vikings made an important contribution to the lands they invaded. They had a strong feeling of personal equality and individual freedom which became their most important heritage in England, France, and the colonies.

The qualities of intelligence and imagination that made the Vikings such excellent navigators also helped them learn rapidly from the people they defeated. As the Vikings became more civilized, they gave up piracy and destruction; they learned peaceful ways of living and helped create a new, commercial Europe.

The Vikings at Perkiomen Valley High School, 1200 strong, possess many of their forefathers' qualities. These students are a daring and adventurous group: they accept the challenge; establish their goals; and proceed in a positive, straightforward manner.

In the classroom, on the field or stage, and in the community, the 1981-1982 Vikings have done their share to make this a memorable year -- In the True Spirit of the Viking.

Viking Spirit And Pride Enjoy A

Fall, 1981, brought with it a new school year — one that would be better in every way.

The sports teams, along with the band and the cheerleaders, practiced long hours during the summer months to prepare for the great, new beginning. When the first day arrived, they were ready.

Teachers attended workshops during the week before classes began, preparing course materials and rooms. Office secretaries were busily typing and making copies of the Student Handbook while administrators were diligently finalizing student class schedules.

On Tuesday, September 8, 1200 eager Vikings, grades eight thru twelve, arrived. Old friendships were quickly renewed, and new ones developed immediately. With new faculty members and students to meet, everyone reflected the delight of the new beginning.

The feeling was there, and the groundwork had been put in place; this year would be a winner in every respect.

Familiar Viking Faces And Places

Every school has those people and places that give the student body a certain sense of security and familiarity needed to start the year.

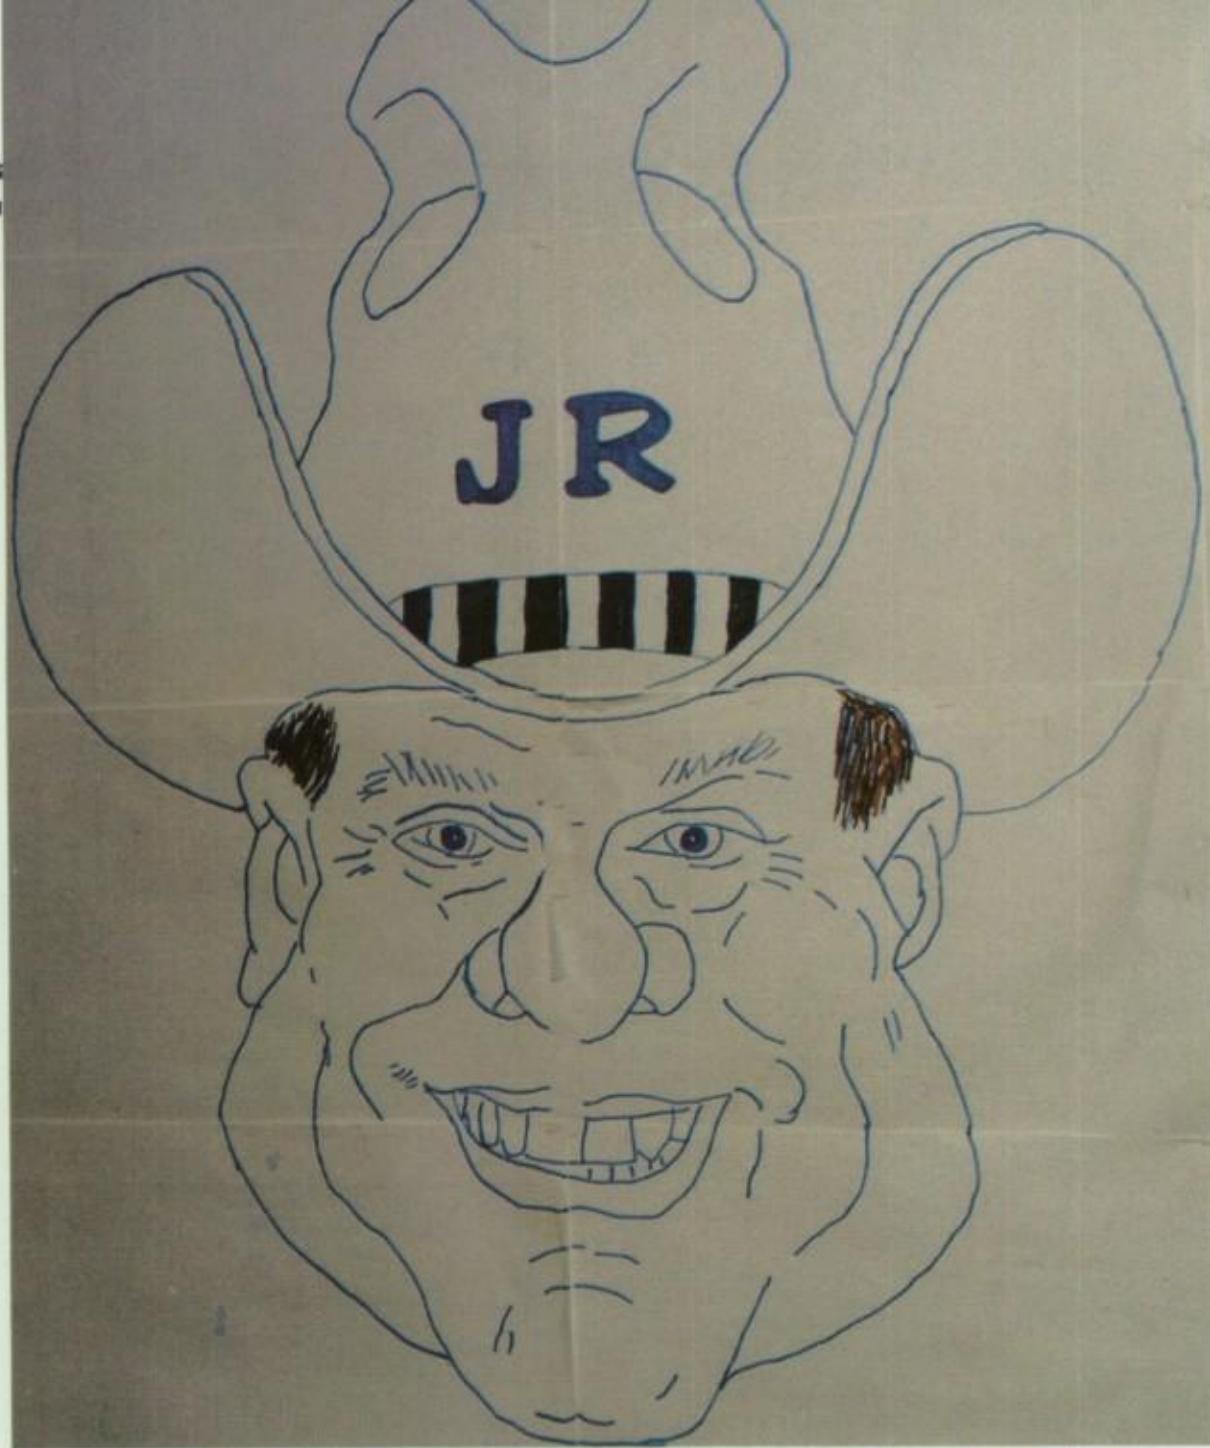

When we look back to this year, we will remember places like the cafeteria, the trees growing upstairs, the peacefulness of the library, the excitement of athletic contests in the gym and on the field, and those special classrooms with favorite teachers and friends. Of course, some of us will remember Miss Schaeffer's office!

Not all the familiar faces attend our school, nor do they teach here. Many of our strongest supporters are our parents who add to the school environment by helping with Booster Club, the Band Parents, and Football Parents. We also have support from the community as shown by the Student Loan organization, the Collegeville Community Club, the Welcome Wagon Club, the Lions, the Rotary, the Business and Professional Women, and other groups.

Employ Viking Students

Patti Yoder works with tiny tots.

McDonald's has been in our area for a year, and during that short period of time has employed many of our high school students. They can be found doing a variety of jobs from six in the morning until midnight. They cook, wait on customers, service the drive-in, do housekeeping chores, and care for the lawn and flowers.

By comparison, Ursinus College has been in existence for over a hundred years; it is the focal point of much activity in Collegeville. During the summer months, our students can be found working in offices and acting as Lifeguards at the indoor pool. These Viking students conduct swimming lessons for young children from the community. One of our students, Patti Yoder, presented a most successful water show at the conclusion of the season for which she has received great acclaim.

School Provides The Focal

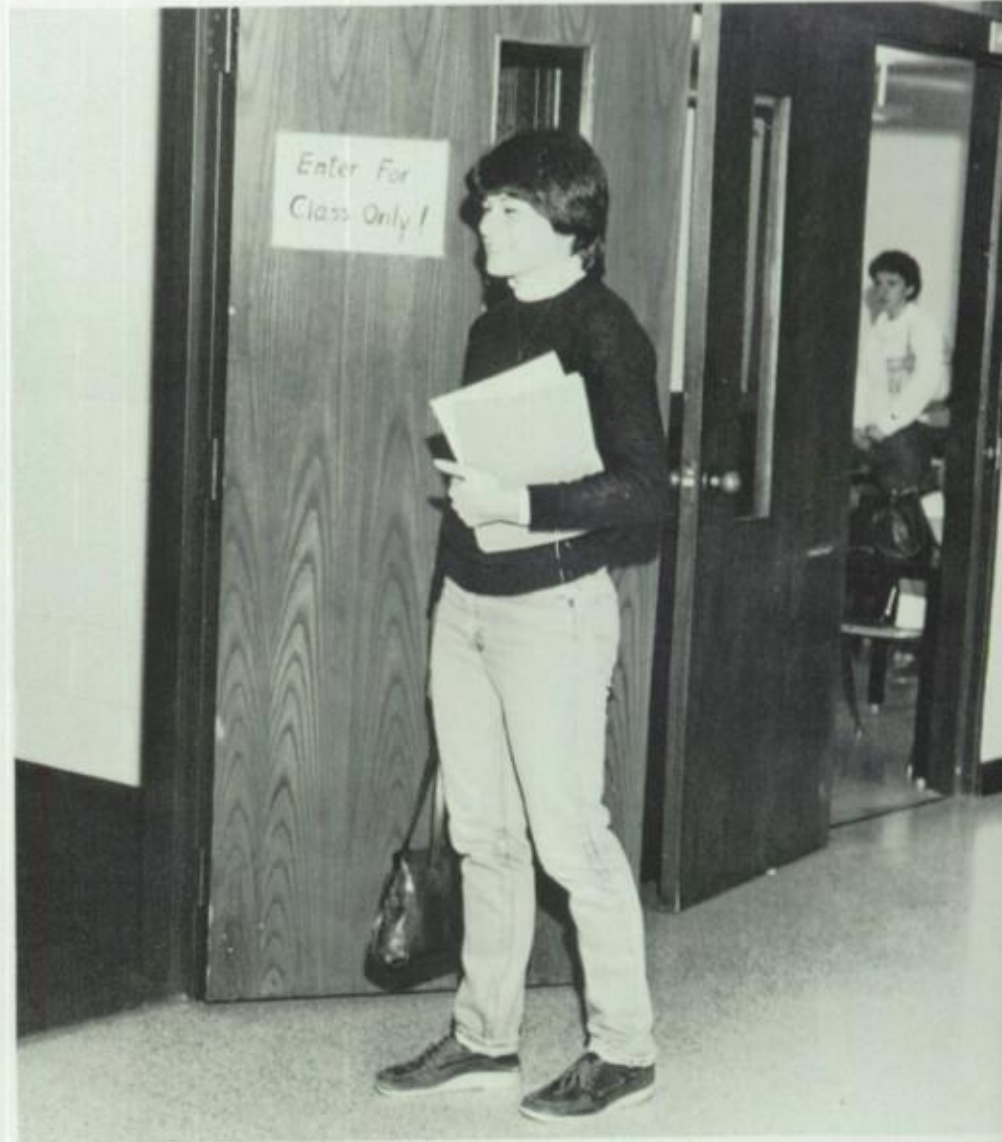

And suddenly, it was September! Although we would miss those lazy summer days, we all looked forward to the beginning of another fun and educationally rewarding school year.

During those first few months, we noted changes and innovations around the building. The lunch program was completely changed -- no more lunch platters as we had known them. These were replaced with a la carte items, but we continued to have a choice of desserts.

Again this year, we had a number of seniors attend college on a part time basis.

Mr. Manley and Dr. Westcott visited classes daily. They even seemed to enjoy English, chemistry, shorthand, and calculus!

A new crop of eighth graders arrived on the scene, and we wondered if we had ever been that small.

Spirit Week Culminates With A Queen,

Below: Joyce Smith and Dean Miller

Amidst all the pomp and circumstance of a great happening, Spirit Week began on Monday, October 19th, with a special all-school assembly in the gym.

Throughout the entire week, the fall sports teams were saluted by various groups within the student body. On Friday, October 23rd, a pep rally ushered in Homecoming Weekend, 1981.

Five senior girls vied for the homecoming crown: Karen Anderson, Nancy Hartzell, Rita Schauder, Sue Shirar, and Joyce Smith. All students in grades eight to twelve were eligible to vote.

Of course, what would Homecoming be without a "king!" At the pep rally on Friday of Spirit Week, Senior Kevin McCollum was awarded that coveted honor, "bowl king."

Winning the homecoming day game for the first time was a fitting end for a very special week at PV. That night a Homecoming dance was held at the high school.

The Student Forum, Class officers, cheerleaders, sports teams, and coaches all contributed their time and efforts to make this a most successful week.

Students Present Hilariously

"The Mouse That Roared"

The Perkiomen Valley High School play, "The Mouse That Roared," a very funny two act comedy was presented at the high school on November 20 and 21.

The play, under the sponsorship of the Class of 1983, concerned the small European republic of Grand Fenwick that declares war on the United States.

Mr. Francis Rapp, directed the play and was assisted by student director, Robert Murphy. Melita Romasco was the stage manager for the production.

The Duchy of Grand Fenwick was approaching economic collapse due to a California wine company copying their only export. Glorianna the Twelfth and her advisors decide to declare war on the United States, their philosophy being that this would be a very profitable venture — declaring war on the USA and losing!

At Community Performances And Concerts

The Perkiomen Valley High School Capella Choir performs two concerts each year — one at Christmas and one in the spring. The choir, directed by Mr. John D. Charles, also has an Honors Choir which performs for various civic clubs and at local malls, in addition to the high school concerts.

The selections of music at this year's Christmas Concert included Bach's "Christmas Oratorio," an Irving Berlin arrangement, the comical "Twelve Days After Christmas," and the "Hallelujah Chorus" from Handel's "Messiah."

Each year one senior is chosen to perform the coveted "O Holy Night" solo; this year Elma Malcolm had the honor.

Three seniors and one junior won recognition by their selection for District Chorus: Kevin Rafuse, Russ Long, Elma Malcolm, and Rob Houser. Russ Long then advanced to Regional selections.

Winter Ball Is A Great Success

Above: Kris Eicholtz, Jim Bickle, Frank Oberholtzer, Robin Lassiter, Dan Flack, and Renee Hildebrand braved the winter weather to attend the ball.

On the morning of January 23, 1982, it didn't look as though there would be a Perkiomen Valley Winter Ball. The roads were very icy, and the weather report bad. Having that true Viking spirit, all but four people managed to attend. At 7:00PM the ball commenced at Birchwood. Roast beef, Irish potatoes, and vegetables were served for dinner.

While the band, Changing Times, played, the couples danced. Surprisingly, most of the couples danced!

The highlight of the evening's festivities was the crowning of the Winter Ball Queen. Danita Neely, escorted by John Smith, was crowned the 1982 Queen.

Other members of the court and their escorts: Joanne Ott and Gary Vanello, Kelly Detweiler and Bob Miller, Rita Schauder and Steve Robinson, Barbara Savitsky and Andy Rutter.

The senior class advisors are Mrs. Fenstermacher and Mr. Lawson.

Above: Pam Newton and Bob Kirk were among those who attended.

"Damn Yankees," Is A Great Success

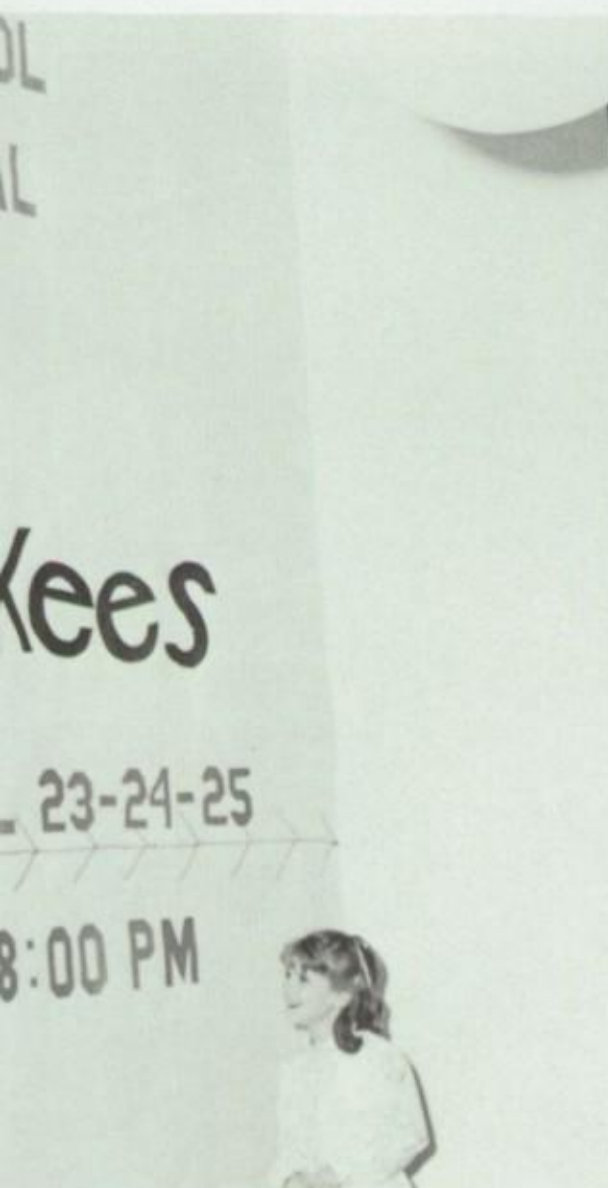

Young Joe Hardy (Rob Houser) rents a room from Meg Hardy (Elma Malcolm).

"Damn Yankees," a musical comedy by Richard Adler and Jerry Ross, was presented on April 23, 24, and 25, 1981. The cast, under the direction of Mr. John D. Charles and Mrs. Lynne Gilbert, amused and entertained their audiences with the story of how Joe Hardy, a middle-aged baseball fan, played by Robert Kifer, sells his soul to the devil for a chance to play in the big leagues. Robert Murphy turned in a superb performance as the devil. Rob Houser, portraying the young Joe Hardy, is tricked and tempted by the devil and the beautiful seductress, Lola. Joe realizes his mistake and returns to his wife, Elma Malcolm, before the devil captures his soul.

The remaining members of the "Damn Yankees" cast were as follows: Tina Bakowski, Marty Benensky, Greg Bono, Phil Bono, Mary Beth Carl, Rich Cassey, Robert Franks, Ross Hoffman, Barry Hydier, Bob Kehler, Russ Long, Dean Miller, Patty Ray, Kurt Richter, Rose Romano, Jana Shellington, and Dennis White.

The chorus included Nancy Allen, Dorothy Bowers, Lynn Cabot, Dorreen Cooke, Lorraine Cuthbertson, Akiko Endo, Cathy Flynn, Diane Fries, Karen Slotterback, Joyce Smith, Ann Steitz, Debbie White, Patti Yoder, and Kim York.

The Washington Senators portrayed by Marty Benensky, Greg Bono, Dennis White, Ross Hoffman, Bob Franks, and Russ Long.

7th And 8th Grade Musicians

The Perkiomen Valley 7th and 8th Grade Band presented its Annual Christmas Concert on Friday, December 18, 1981 in the high school auditorium.

Performing groups at the 7th and 8th Grade level include the Concert Band, Stage Band, Brass Ensemble, Flute Ensemble, and Clarinet Ensemble. The groups perform throughout the year, with the Stage Band and Ensembles giving special performances in the elementary schools.

Students from the band program are also selected to participate in the Inter-County Junior High School Band Festival.

In addition, each year band members attend two concerts given by the Philadelphia Orchestra at the Academy of Music in Philadelphia.

The entire 7th and 8th Grade band program is directed by Mr. Robert A. Hagopian.

SPORTS

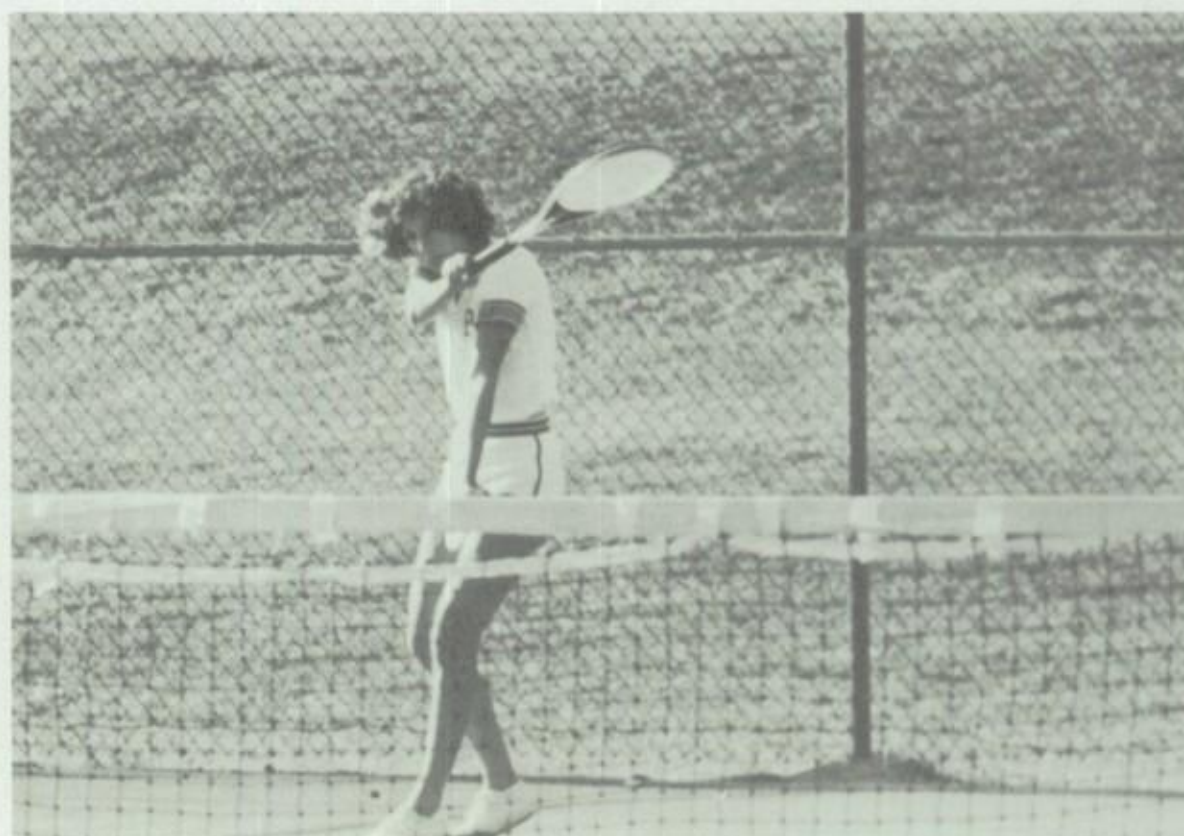

Girls' Tennis Has An Encouraging Season

The Girls' Tennis Team jumped off to an encouraging start, defeating for the first time Spring-Ford and Norristown in pre-season scrimmages. However, the league proved to be as strong and tough as ever, allowing only one victory, with a close chance at a second.

Pam Newton led the Varsity with four singles wins. The doubles teams of Sandy Ness-Stephanie Wanta and Diane Sutphen-Sharon Lorah contributed three wins each to make this one of our best seasons in terms of individual accomplishment.

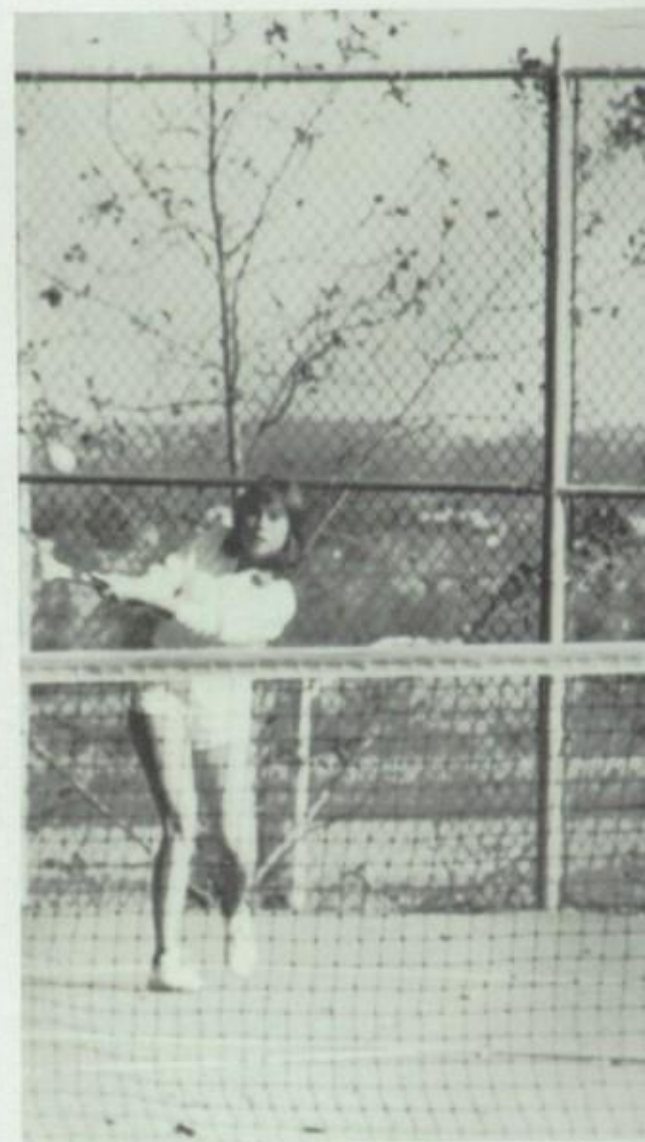

Tri-captains were Lynne Valitski, Stephanie Wanta, and Sue Griffith.

Varsity Hockey Team Boasts 6-3 Season

What started out as a frustrating season ended with a second place finish in the Bux-Mont league and a play-off berth for the varsity hockey team. Central Bucks West finished the season with an identical 6-3 record and went on to win the Class AAA state championship.

In the first game in district playoffs, the girls beat a very strong Sharon Hill team. Jennifer Maliken scored the only goal of the game, while Karen Patrick did especially well in goal.

The second game in the district playoffs matched the Viking girls against Springfield, but our girls came up short after fifty minutes of regulation play and ten minutes of overtime, 3-2.

This year's team was led by a number of outstanding seniors, with Karen Anderson and Michelle Smiley making the All Bux-Mont First Team and Renee Hildebrand, Tami Trauger, Rita Schauder, and Jennifer Maliken receiving Honorable Mention. High scorer for the season was Jennifer Maliken with eight goals.

The JV girls also had a very successful season, posting seven wins and five ties. The defense led the way to seven shutouts and allowed only six goals in twelve games.

Locker's

The 1981 football season brought two big victories: a Homecoming victory over Souderton and a first-ever win over Quakertown.

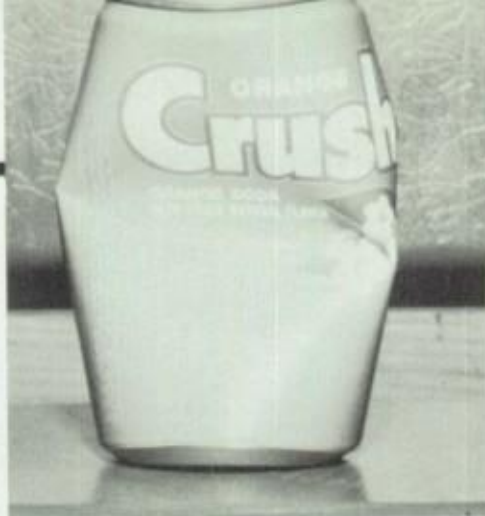

Against Souderton the Vikings displayed that special ingredient, pride, and walked away victorious. They did this behind the passing of Chas Garber for 218 yards. Nelson McCourry scored two of the touchdowns. This game produced the best offensive totals of the season, with 61 yards on the ground and 218 yards passing.

The victory over Quakertown was a team win, with everyone hustling. The biggest play of the game came with 2:24 left when Junior Dave James split the uprights from 35 yards out.

Chas Garber brought home the prestigious Haley Award after his performance against Souderton.

The Junior Varsity team had a good season, showing substantial improvement in spite of a 3-6 record. The goal of the JV football program is not necessarily to win games, but to give the players the opportunity to play and the experience they will need to compete on a varsity level.

After two years of competition in the Bux-Mont league, the Varsity Soccer team tallied its first win, a 3-0 shutout over Quakertown. Almost as important as the win, the boys tied undefeated league champ Hatboro-Horsham.

With only a few exceptions, our team was very competitive, losing five games by only one goal. Twelve lettermen will return, eight with two years experience.

Three boys earned recognition at the close of the season by the Bux-Mont league. Paul Anderson was named to the Second Team, All Bux-Mont, and Scott Howard and Frank Helleis received Honorable Mention.

Co-captains for this year were Scott Howard and Keith Knaide. High scorer was Dave James with eight goals and seven assists, and Mark Allebach with four goals and three assists.

The Junior Varsity did one better than last year; they beat Boyertown by a 2-1 margin.

"When it comes to cross-country, one school — Perkiomen Valley — stands far above the crowd."

Although Mr. Ventresca, Times Herald Sports Writer, is the originator of the above material, he could not have been more correct. We do stand above the crowd; in fact, above every AA high school in the state!

Our girl runners are unbelievable; they've done it again — their fourth consecutive State Championship.

In his eight years as coach, Mr. Wiser has brought many league, district, and state titles. His girls captured their fourth consecutive Bux-Mont title, their 7th consecutive District I title, and have a winning streak of forty-six consecutive dual meet victories. This is quite an outstanding and impressive record for the girls and their coaches, one that is unmatched in the entire state!

In addition to the above statistics, the PV girls also won the Hilltop Invitational, the AA State College Invitational, and the Golden Apple Invitational in New York.

In the Golden Apple meet, the Viking Girls were first among forty schools from various states.

The varsity squad members are Joanne Kehs, captain and only senior; juniors Karen Sheppard and Marsha Thorpe; sophomores Kate Coll, Karen DeLucia, and Cindy Walters; and freshman, Donna Hayden.

The combination of hard work, talent, and excellent coaching has made PV a cross country landmark. Congratulations to our finest!

Boys Win Third Consecutive District Title

The Boys' Cross Country Team was very successful again this year. After losing many outstanding seniors from last year's team, the boys entered the season not knowing what to expect. This talented group of runners successfully defended their District I AA crown, competed in States, finished the season with a 4-5 record in the Bux-Mont league, and placed fifth in the Bux-Mont league race.

The varsity includes seniors Frank Oberholtzer, Tony Rogers, and Eric Wolfgang; juniors Dave Bushnell, Matt Kile, Tom Kile, and Rick Russo; and sophomore Jeff Johnson.

Coaches Wiser and Thomas did another outstanding job of coaching. Not many people realize how much time and effort the coaches and runners dedicate to this sport, but it's obvious they're doing something right. Congratulations on a successful season!

Golf Team Has A Disappointing Season

What can be said about a 0-15 record for a season! This kind of record can mean only one thing - a very bad season - one that both coach and team members would prefer to forget.

Our outstanding golfer was Jon Robinson, a senior, who was also the captain of the team. He played well and led the team in lowest composite score. Jon participated in the District One Golf Tournament, shooting an 87.

Jon and Wayne Houck participated in the Bux-Mont Golf Tournament. Jon shot an 85 and Wayne shot 95. Jon's score was good enough to place him fifteenth among the best golfers in the Bux-Mont league.

It is hoped that next year girls and more boys come out for the team. Golf teaches competition, fair play, and good sportsmanship. It is a sport one can play throughout an entire lifetime. Some golfers may even reach the pro ranks and make a bundle!

Before the start of the 1981-1982 basketball season, the media predicted that "Realistically, Coach Krum may be facing a lot of sleepless nights." As the season unfolded, those words became fact.

After losing several starters, the team had to regroup and go forward. We're proud of their composure and motivation under the circumstances.

Again this year, our team and the entire Bux-Mont league was led by senior Mickey Cunningham. This season marked his fourth as a starter for the PV varsity team. To say that we are proud of Mickey would be an understatement. His twenty-four points per game average has qualified him for All-State honors. His performances appear all the more impressive when one considers the defenses arranged to stop him. His records at PV will stand for many years to come.

Coach Heffernan feels his young JV team, mostly sophomores, learned the basics of defensive play, rebounding, and aggressive basketball; he is looking confidently to next season.

Girls Struggle Through Season After Strong Start

C.J. Urbanski jumps while Joyce Lasorda and Kim Marcelli wait for the ball.

The girls' basketball teams began practice early in November under the direction of Mr. Kratz and Mrs. Ettinger. The varsity team looked forward to an exciting season as four letter winners returned for their senior year, and a fifth starter had also seen some varsity action the previous season.

After four successful scrimmages, the girls began the season with two non-league victories over Spring-Ford and Methacton. They chalked up two more league wins before disaster struck. Numerous turnovers, injuries, and an inconsistent offense proved too difficult to overcome as the team lost six of their last seven games.

With the start of the second half of the season, they continued to struggle to overcome the mental mistakes and inconsistencies which plagued them throughout the first half.

The Junior Varsity was led by an outstanding group of sophomores. They slaughtered arch-rival Methacton by 43 points and did not lose a game in the first half by more than six points. Joyce Lasorda and Darcy Calkins led the team in scoring. C. J. Urbanski joined Laura DeSimone, Kim Marcelli, and Holly Mato in the backcourt while Lisa Nolan and Chris Haley helped Lasorda and Calkins with the rebounding chores.

The Ninth Grade Girls' Basketball team had an interesting season. They were victorious, but not as often as they would have liked. These young Vikings displayed a great deal of hustle, determination, and talent.

The Eighth Grade team had an exceptionally good season. This team had an overabundance of height.

Although victories were hard to come by, the Junior High Boys' Varsity team showed competitive spirit and determination. Tom Charters was high scorer, with a game average of 15.4 points after the first eight games. Mark Osisek followed with a game average of 12 points.

The Boys' Junior Varsity team fought for a win throughout the season. Both boys' teams improved and gained experience from the season's play.

Waterpolo was introduced at PV two years ago by Mr. Schulte. Because it is an intramural sport, students from 8th to 12th grade may play. Fourteen were chosen for the "All-Star" team that played against strong teams like Germantown Academy and Lower Moreland.

Bowling is another sport that is open to all students. This is an inter-competitive sport within a league composed of ten, three person teams.

Those students who participate in Winter Track are probably the true "Vikings" at PV. They brave the elements to run almost every day during the coldest months of the year. Competitively, they fared exceptionally well this season.

The boys' two mile relay team of Dave Bushnell, Matt and Tom Kile, and Rick Russo, will be competing in the Meet of Champions at Princeton. This is our first boys' relay team ever to compete there. Greg Hohman will compete in the pole vault in the same meet. Brian Harkins ran undefeated in the hurdles in Pennsylvania and established a field house record at Lehigh University, as well as a school record of 7.5 seconds in this event. Brian is looking forward to competing in the Eastern States Indoor Championship in March at Princeton. This has been PV's finest indoor season!

The girls' one mile relay team competed in the Philadelphia Track Classic at the Spectrum as they finished third in the high school championship race and established a new school record. A new Civic Center record in the two mile relay was established. New school records were set in the 60 yard dash, 60 hurdles, 1000 yard run, 4 lap relay, distance medley relay, as well as the one mile relay. Almost every girl on the team will compete in the Meet of Champions to be held at Widener College; several individuals and two relay teams will compete at the Eastern States Indoor Championship at Harvard University. Captains for this team are Joanne Kehs and Lisa Thompson. These two outstanding individuals contributed greatly to all the new school records.

It should be noted that the girls' relay team brought special recognition to our school this year. At the Harvard championships, Lisa Howard, Karen DeLucia, Kate Coll, and Joanne Kens broke the national record by finishing in 9:14.47.

This is the most outstanding honor our school has ever received; thank you girls and Mr. Wiser. You have performed well — in the true spirit of the Viking.

The Perkiomen Valley Boys' Swim Team, plagued by a second year with a rational number of swimmers, held together throughout a losing season which ended at the Bux-Mont Championships.

The team was led by Senior and Co-Captain Paul Anderson, whose performances throughout the year were outstanding. Greg Bono, Senior and Co-Captain, was out with an illness for most of the season; but his spirit was always there to push the swimmers to their best efforts.

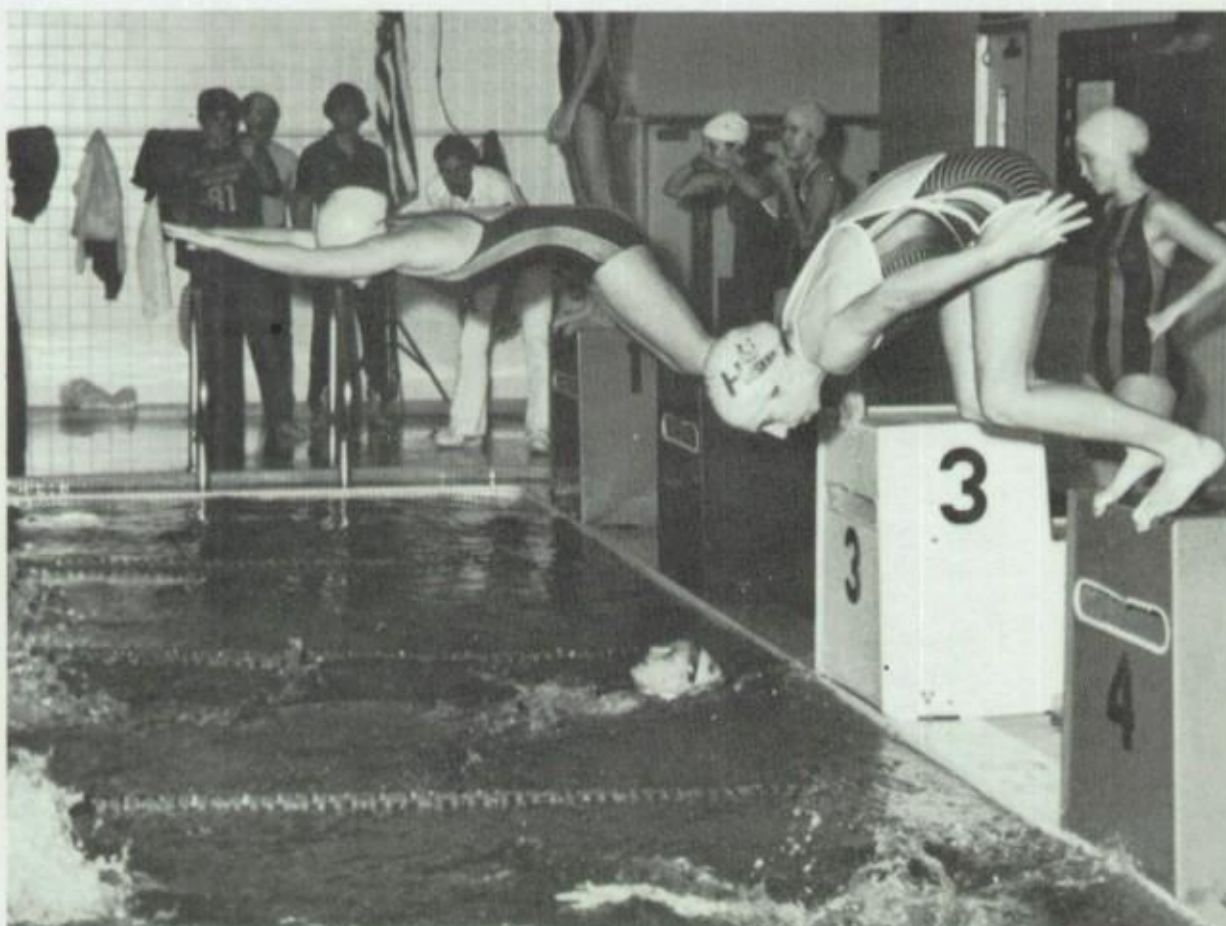

Other Aquavikes included Rob MacFarland, who set a new 100 Yard Breaststroke record; Mike Bono, who is a promising breaststroker; and Dave Beatty, an outstanding sprinter for seasons to come. Joe Yoder, the team's only diver, did a great job in both diving and swimming.

The team should be congratulated for a fine effort.

Determination, And Desire To Win

The best of one's ability is not brought out by a coach, parent, or friend; it evolves from one's self-pride and desire to achieve.

The 1981-82 swim season for the female Aquavikes was a very trying one. Depth is a crucial part of a successful team; and, unfortunately, this year we lacked that necessary ingredient.

True to Viking spirit, the team didn't let that stop them; they just worked harder. Although they were small in numbers, their pride, determination, and desire to win were very evident throughout the entire season.

Seniors Liz Thompson, Karen Altemose, Denise Peck, and Tri-captains Lynne Valitski, Geraldine Rader, and Diane Sutphen displayed quality leadership and fine sportmanship.

Although the team won only two meets this season, some of its members did qualify for Districts. The 200 yard Medley Relay Team consisting of Kris Eicholtz, Renee Hildebrand, Diane Sutphen, and Geraldine Rader won a spot; and Renee Hildebrand earned a position in the 100 yard breaststroke.

Next year's team will have returning lettermen and very dedicated and talented underclassmen. Junior Renee Hildebrand became the first Perkiomen Valley swimmer to make the State Finals.

Saddled with a poor turnout, injuries, behavior problems, and a lack of experience, the wrestling team struggled through a very frustrating season. However, there were some outstanding individual achievements.

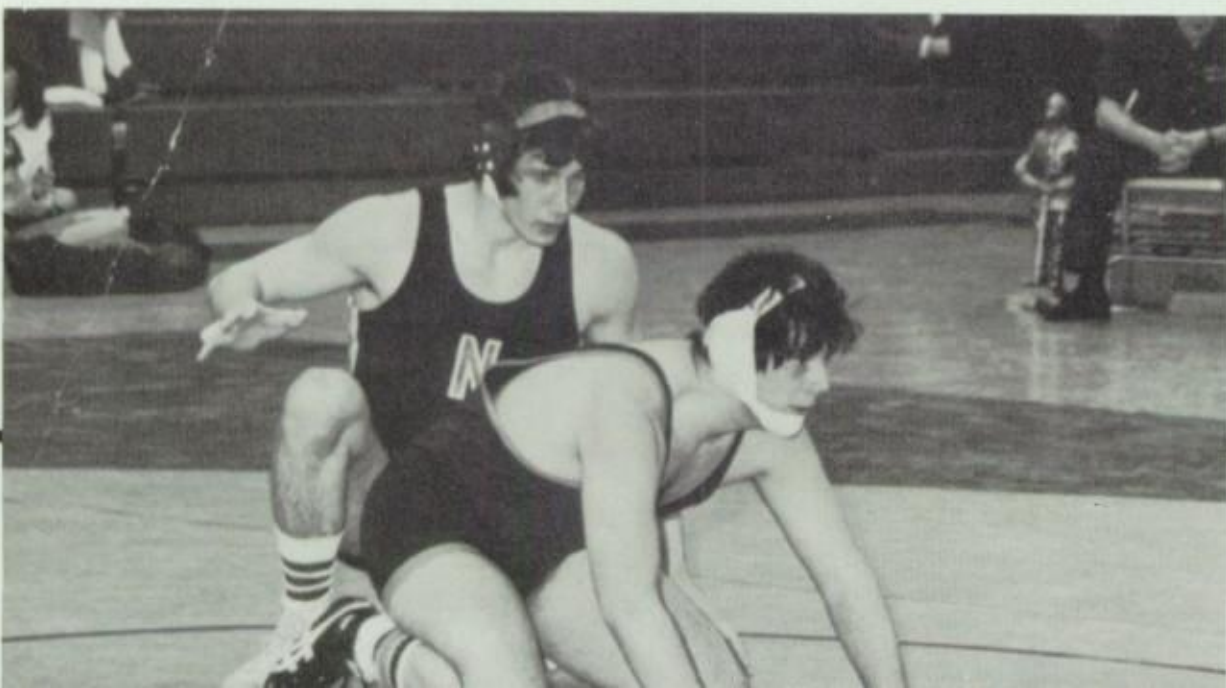

Team Captain Ed Lindsay and Tom Watts both placed second in the Spring-Ford Christmas Tournament. Additionally, both wrestlers had good dual-meet seasons and should place high in the post-season tournaments. Tim Tomko, like Tom and Ed, also has the potential to qualify for the state tournament. Rounding out the varsity line-up were Ken Watts, Barry Hoffman, and Kevin Rafuse.

The Junior Varsity was led by John Diehl. Kris Trauger, Rob Turner, Jeff Milligan, Dave Schmitt, Doug Hydier, Jack Farrell, and Ron Sowers filled in the remaining weight classes. Senior Ed Lindsay won the Sectional District championships. He completed the season with a fourth place finish in Regionals.

The 1981 Viking baseball team finished the season with an 8-10 record. Playing their best baseball in the last games of the season, the team beat C.B. East 5-4, 2nd place Souderton 1-0, and 4th place Pennridge 6-4, while losing a tough game to Souderton 5-4 in the last inning.

Senior Chris Haas was selected for the All Bux-Mont second team at First Base, with a batting average of .377. Chris also led the league in RBI's, triples, and homers. Selected as Honorable Mention were Eric Hunsberger, center field, Steve Robinson, shortstop, and John Smiley, designated hitter with a .357 average. John was also our main relief pitcher, appearing in thirteen of twenty games and winning the silver wing award for pitching, with a four win - three loss record.

The Junior Varsity team had an overall record of 8-11 and a league record of 7-10. Considering the disadvantages of a general lack of game experience and the small number of team members, they performed well.

Don Snyder, Ron Oelschlager, Bob Balmer, Matt Dunning, and Dave James each hit over .300, and the team average for batting was .247.

Advances To District Playoffs

The lacrosse teams had another successful season. With high scoring games and outstanding defense, the Varsity team outscored all opponents.

The year began with a 15-5 thumping of Methacton and ended with a heartbreaking 8-7 loss to Unionville in the last thirteen seconds of the District playoff game.

A 5-4 loss to arch rival C.B. West was the most significant game - our team had to settle for second place behind West.

Four girls were named to the All Bux-Mont First Team: Susie Anderson, Tricia Schauder, Sharon Ullman, and Cindy Wallace. Second Team honors went to Jackie Webb; and Jane Fretz, LeeAnn Linhart, Chris Kirk, and Laura Simons earned Honorable Mention.

After losing the opening game to Methacton, the Junior Varsity team won twelve games. Kathy Johns was high scorer, with 38 goals. Goalie Lenore Tornetta did an exemplary job.

Places 3rd In District Meet

The Viking boys' track season was a good one. The team started out well, beating a strong Quakertown quite decisively.

At Districts a third-place finish among thirty-three teams proved to be the momentum the boys needed to go on to States. Sophomore Brian Harkins was the District champ in the 100M high hurdles and also placed second in the 300M intermediate hurdles. Ajay Sawhney placed first in the 3200M run to become District champ. The third Viking champ was high-jumper Jeff Jones. The two mile relay team of Sawhney, Swanson, Sheppard, and Rogers placed second, enough for a trip to States. Eric Swanson was also second in the 800M run.

At States, Jeff Jones scored PV's only points, with a second place in the high jump. The two mile relay team got seventh place; Ajay Sawhney and Brian Harkins also did well.

Third Consecutive State Track Championship =

When a team wins a state Championship once, it has the glory of being champion for a year. If that team wins again the following year, heads begin to turn. If that team wins for a third straight year, it must be called a dynasty in the making. Our girls track team did just that — they won that coveted prize for three consecutive years.

The State Championship was the finale of an 8-1 league record, their second place finish in Bux-Monts, and their District I AA crown. These girls also competed in the nationally recognized Penn Relays, in addition to participating in other relay carnivals throughout the season.

Leading the Lady Vikes at States was Co-captain Joanne Kehs who won the 800M run in a new state record time and anchored both the winning 3200 and 1600 meter relays. The 3200M relay was comprised of Co-captain Julie Wirth, Kate Coll, Karen DeLucia, and Joanne Kehs. The 1600m relay was DeLucia, Coll, Michelle Lassiter, and Kehs. Lisa Thompson won silver and bronze in the hurdles and 100m dash respectively. DeLucia took 3rd in the 1600m run; Wirth took 4th in the 3200m run; and Coll took 5th in the 800m run.

It must be remembered that a team cannot make it to States without a successful season, and that success is credited not only to those competing in States but to the entire team whose hard work and dedication all season got the job done.

Congratulations to Coaches Wiser, Thomas, Krum, and Weinstein and to the entire girls team for yet another proud season as the state's finest.

Kate Coll runs way ahead of the pack at States.

Boys' Tennis Completes Third Year In Bux-Mont

Although the 1981 Boys' tennis team had no victories, they showed strength in the very strong Bux-Mont league.

Their play improved as the season progressed, and they won more individual matches this season than last.

Rob Houser, a sophomore, was named outstanding singles player, and juniors Paul Anderson and Russ Long earned recognition as the outstanding doubles team.

For the first time since its inception, the team experienced a sense of satisfaction in their play.

Boys' tennis has completed its third competitive season, a much improved one.

The Eighth Grade lacrosse team, in its first year of competition, finished with a record of 0-7-1. Led by co-captains Jamie Little and Diane Benz, the team scored a total of ten goals during the season. Jamie Little was the high scorer with four goals, and Crystal Morgan did an outstanding job as a first-year goalie.

The Ninth Grade team scored seventeen times; of these Chris Haley had five goals and Kim Marcelli scored three. Although the team was winless, the girls were complimented for their aggressive and sportsmanlike play by officials and opposing coaches. The Ninth Grade team was captained by Laura DeSimone.

These Girls Deserve A Well-Earned "Cheer"

The Varsity and Junior Varsity Cheerleaders' season began in August with a week of practice before the football season opened. During the season, the girls were involved in making spirit banners for the football team, planning pep rallies, and cheering at all football games. From football, the cheerleaders moved directly into basketball season, cheering at all games, home and away.

In addition to cheering, these young ladies participate in various activities which include selling programs, sponsoring cheerleading clinics, selling wrapping paper, and cheering competitively.

Wrestlerettes doubled their support this season, with the addition of a JV squad. Their "sit down" cheers with straight, sharp motions and clear voices have created more spirit from the PV bleachers.

An eighth grade squad was added this year so that both eighth and ninth grade squads cheer at all home football games, and both boys' and girls' basketball games. These girls also began their season in August and carried through until February.

The 110 members of the Perkiomen Valley High School Band opened its 1981-82 season with a two-week summer camp. Marching fundamentals and music rehearsals were stressed as the students prepared for fall performances.

Halftime shows at football games featured selections ranging from Maynard Ferguson to Bernstein's "West Side Story." During the Halloween season, the band participated in four parades: Upper Perk, Collegeville, Skippack, and Schwenksville.

The concert season included a winter performance, a Jazz Festival, and a spring concert.

Monthly hoagie sales are used to purchase uniforms, buy necessary equipment, and partially fund any group excursions.

High school instrumental groups include the Marching Band, Concert Band, Jazz Band, Solo, and Ensemble groups to meet student needs.

With the addition of Mr. McNaughton, an enthusiastic and talented leader, Perkiomen Valley has experienced a renewed interest and enjoyment of instrumental music.

Student Forum Has A Busy, Rewarding Year

Student Forum, 1981-82, presented a new and unified membership — one with competent leadership and enthusiastic members.

All meetings were handled in an orderly manner which enabled the representatives to express their opinions and ideas.

"Spirit Week" in October was a tremendous success; the student body was receptive and contributed to the daily activities that culminated with Homecoming Day.

There were new ideas throughout the year. The M.S. All Stars brought dollars for the Multiple Sclerosis Foundation. Santa received help in answering all the elementary students' letters. The Christmas spirit was enhanced with the sale of lollypops.

Selected students attended Intermediate Unit meetings at various high schools in the Montgomery County area. These meetings provided the opportunity to discuss common areas of concern. The Intermediate Unit has given our Student Forum information and guidance for fund raising projects and school policies.

This year the National Honor Society has thirty-three members in grades eleven and twelve. Students in tenth, eleventh and twelfth grades are eligible for membership on the basis of academic average; the final selection of members is done by the high school faculty with their ratings of each student in the categories of Leadership, Scholarship, Character, and Service.

The activities of the National Honor Society members include serving as waiters at the Scholarship Loan Fund Breakfast, providing tutoring for other students, bringing Santa Claus to the high school, and hosting a Holiday Tea for Alumni. They are also responsible for the College Bowl Assembly, the induction of new members, and the retreat at the end of the school year. National Honor Society members act as guides for visitors to the high school. Mrs. Small and Mrs. Hadrick are the advisors.

Chapter 52 of the National Art Honor Society accomplished great things this year. They worked on several big projects, and a district-wide art show was held in March.

A "Lady Viking" will be joining our "Male Viking" in the gym. A mural for the area between the gym doors was completed and presented at the Fall Awards Assembly.

The National Art Honor Society is also responsible for scenery used for plays and musicals. Mrs. Gilbert is the advisor.

Mr. Yeakel Sponsors Youth Education Association,

Our Y.E.A. chapter, one of two hundred clubs located throughout Pennsylvania, is sponsored by the Perkiomen Valley Education Association and the Pennsylvania State Education Association.

Its members are interested in school and community improvement through service projects. Developing leadership skills and exploring career options are also vital aspects.

Y.E.A. participates in the UNICEF drive, holds a Thanksgiving Brunch for Faculty and Administration, conducts a candy cane sale, performs Christmas carols at a nursing home, and assists in American Education Week projects. They also work with institutions, hold a book and record fair, sponsor the all-school Bloodmobile, and work closely with foreign exchange students.

The Bulletin Board Committee is a group of student volunteers who create and place attractive displays throughout the school — advertising special school and seasonal events. This committee does special assignment work for individual teachers who wish assistance with classroom bulletin board displays.

Each year a number of students are chosen from grades ten to twelve to help in the school office and guidance department.

Students are selected from study halls to perform varied services in these areas. Delivering daily absentee sheets, messages, and office duties are among the types of services they carry out each day.

This year we have been fortunate in having students who are most enthusiastic and dependable. Both the administrators and the secretaries appreciate their assistance.

Mrs. Ida Lance, Secretary in the Guidance Department.

Special Education, Swimming, Library,

As in past years, numerous high school students volunteered their study hall periods to assist in the three TMR Special Education classrooms. These volunteers were involved in various aspects of the program, including individual instruction in the academic classroom, practicing time, counting money, reading and writing skills.

High school aides also assisted in the two vocational classrooms, where they worked with students in the completion of work task samples and wood and craft projects. Aides spent time sharing creative ideas to develop new product lines for the Special Education students to expand upon and for the aides themselves to experiment with. Through these experiences, the special students were given the opportunity to meet some new people, develop new friendships, and learn the meaning of working together with peers.

On the other hand, the high school students were able to put some of their own ideas into practice, thereby achieving a deeper sense of responsibility, concern, and sharing.

Other types of aides who assist around PV are swim aides, gym aides, and library aides.

Perkiomen Valley Audio-Visual Department is a team of students, directed by Mr. Rembisz. They provide a variety of media services to our teachers.

The major concern is the closed circuit television programming, a system in which shows are broadcasted from the AV office and fed to various rooms.

On-the-spot coverage is sometimes required; virtually all assemblies, after-school programs, pep rallies, and school board meetings have had AV assistance.

This group is also responsible for providing teachers with films and projectors.

The Stage and Lighting Crew maintains the sound and theater lighting in the auditorium. The crew is trained in all functions of the equipment so that any new member can do any job at a moment's notice.

The principal events on their calendar are the Fall Play and the Spring Musical, but assistance is also provided for the Chorus, Band, and any school assembly.

This was a transitional year for the Iron Sword. Twelve new members joined the newspaper, and the veterans spent a considerable amount of time training the newcomers in the rigorous process of writing and rewriting copy.

In an effort to foster a better understanding of the high school within the community, the Iron Sword began publication in early fall of a weekly column in the Schwenksville Item.

Believing that student opinion can and does influence Board and Administrative decisions, the Editorial Staff emphasized positive changes in editorials which concentrated on ways to improve the academic program.

A satiric column, "Contrary to Popular Belief," replaced the "Cynic." This column, which recounted the adventures of two underlings who lived in a castle in fictitious Perkshire Valley, provided humorous commentary on a wide range of events.

Viking Spirit Used As Yearbook Theme

Writing copy, planning layouts, taking pictures, and meeting deadlines are only some of the many jobs performed by the industrious members of the yearbook staff.

One might label these students the 'unsung heroes' of the school. Many hours are spent each week so that the entire school population will be pleased with their annual Voyager.

This year's theme, "In The True Spirit of The Viking," was selected because it reflects the feelings and attitudes of the student body, the faculty, and the administration. That fighting spirit and sense of determination will carry our theme through all facets of life.

Although the last deadline for this book was February 22, 1982, plans for next year's Voyager began early in March.

ACADEMICS

Viking Excellence

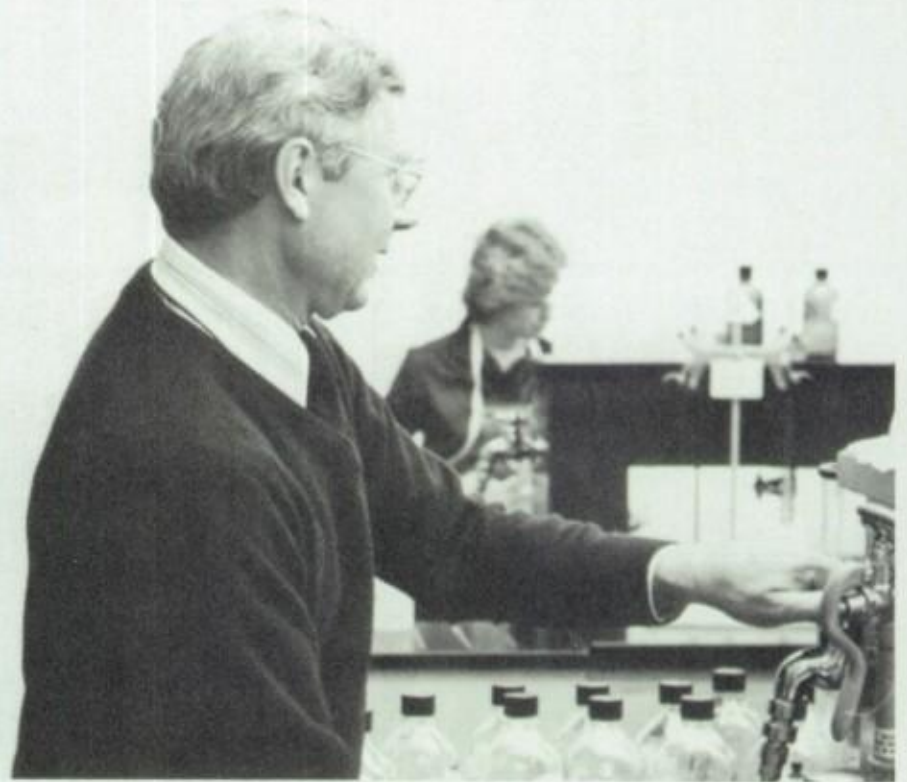

Science, Math, Driver Ed.

The Science curriculum includes almost 850 students in required course programs and advanced, elective classes. This year Advanced Biology has been added, along with double laboratory periods in some Physics, Chemistry, Biology, and Earth Science classes. Many students who show a special interest in science have expanded their knowledge and experience: Experimental Science classes do water tests at the Perkiomen Creek for the Perkiomen Watershed Association; Biology classes grow garden plants in winter to give them an early spring start; and Earth and Space students test garden soil for nutrients. A group interested in school landscaping has evolved from science classes. It is notable that many students elect to take science courses after satisfying required courses for graduation; many of these students continue their scientific studies in college.

Approximately 900 students take Mathematics courses from eighth to twelfth grade. In addition to a regular progression of high school mathematics from Algebra I to Algebra III and Trigonometry, our high school offers Calculus and Computer courses to those in advanced programs. The Mathematics course selections are divided into three levels: Accelerated, Academic, and Basic. Through the use of National Honor Society students, a tutorial program has been designed to help fellow students. Teachers and students in various other subject areas have been aided by the application of the computer to their uses. The Calculator Games Club has evolved as an activity for students. The Mathematics department is proud of its SAT scores — scores on these tests and other achievement tests have always been above the national norms. The department sponsors a mathematics contest in March, the winners advance to national competition.

Driver Education is available to all students. The classroom phase is in accordance with the time requirements of the Pennsylvania Department of Education. The roadwork is open to anyone sixteen years of age with a valid permit or license for a $35.00 fee. Upon successful completion of both the classwork and roadwork, students will become eligible for a senior license at age seventeen. Students will also be eligible for an insurance discount until the age of twenty-one.

All students in grades eight through twelve are enrolled in English. In addition to English at the high school level, some seniors have elected to take courses at nearby colleges. Of course, those students must meet specific qualifications. Advanced English courses in the high school take the form of the gifted program and the 888 program. Students use skills learned in class when working on the school newspaper or yearbook. The teachers seek to teach the art of effective communication in writing and speaking, to increase command of vocabulary, and to provide experience in reading, for personal enjoyment and enrichment.

For the first time, foreign languages are being offered to eighth grade students; the students selected for this opportunity must first demonstrate their ability and motivation for such advanced work.

In today's changing society, a second language is a great asset in securing a job in business, government, and education.

Students may take four years of French, German, or Spanish. Many students elect to take two years of one language and then two years of a different language. Most students who take foreign languages find the experience helps them to understand their own English language better, and many students take additional language courses on a college level after successfully completing the high school level.

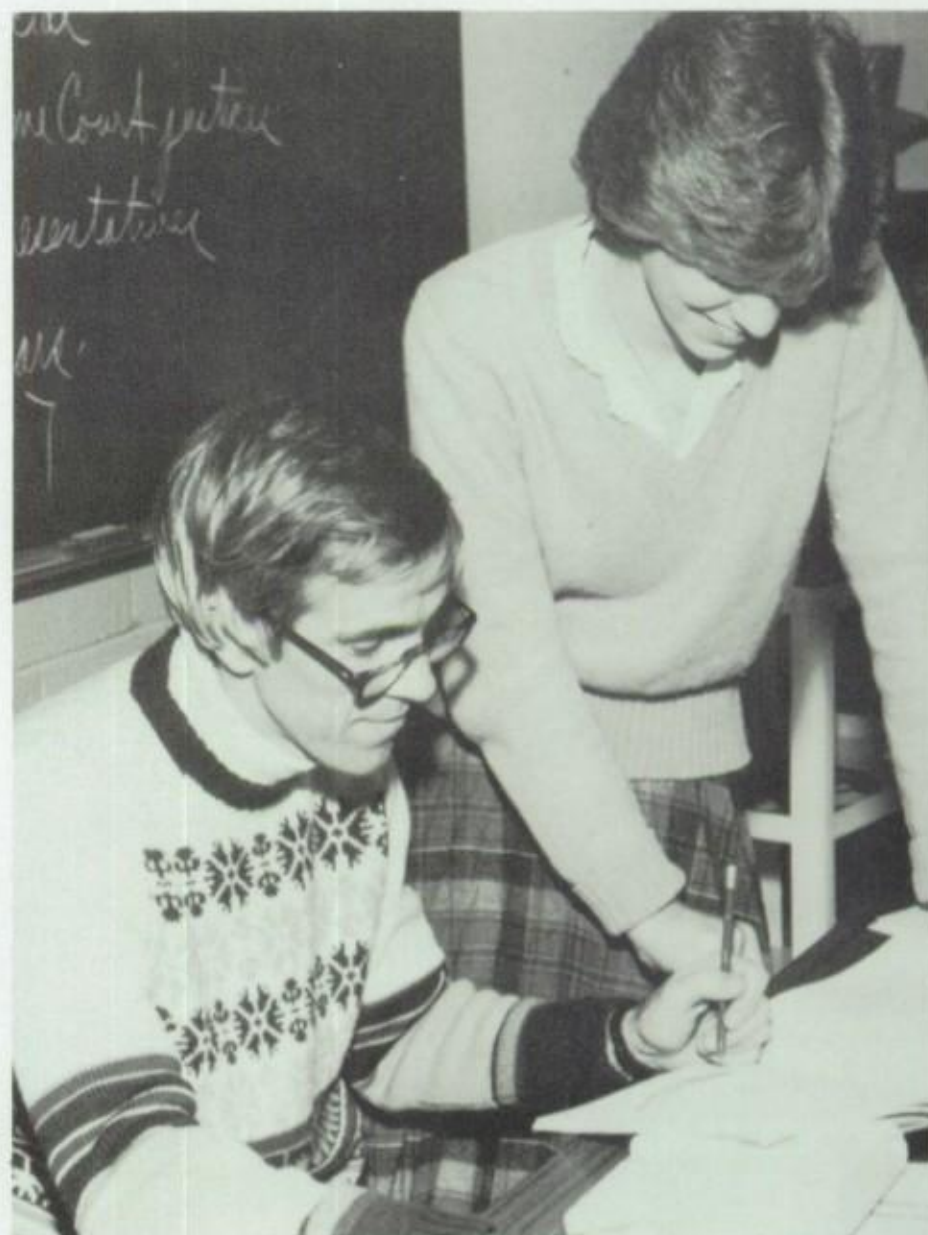

Students in foreign languages plan trips abroad and defray part of the expense through fund raising projects.

Languages

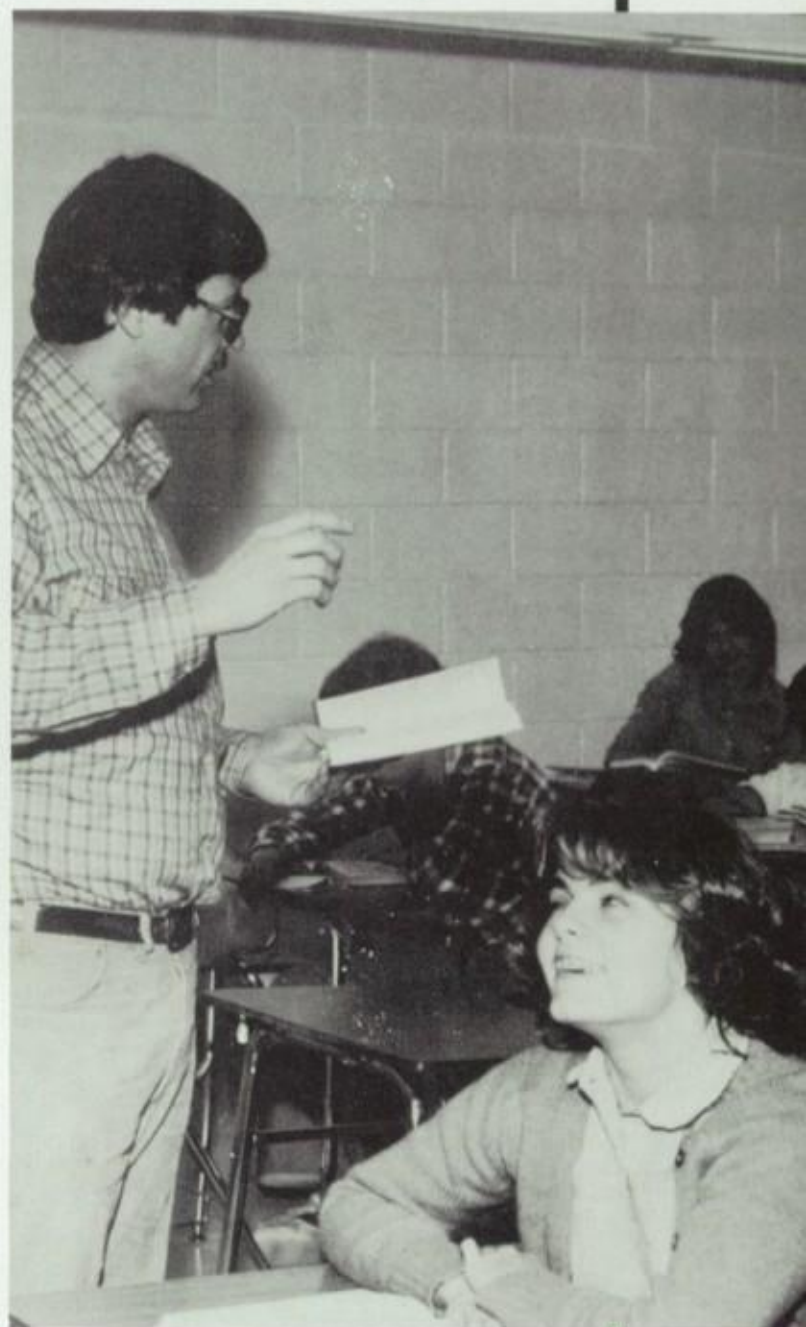

This attractive mural was designed by Paul Anderson, Jackie Hebert, Ross Hoffman, Brian Harkins, Brian Horrocks, Beth Wells, Michelle Smiley, Dawn Phifer, Patti Yoder, and Helena Andersson.

A grammar lesson in French class progressed to a research project about the history of the various countries. Much information was gathered, including the flags, symbols, and colors for each country. The weeks of November 22nd and November 27th were proclaimed "Honor Your Ancestors" weeks.

The French III and IV students collected names of students and faculty members with their ancestors' countries. Their names were placed under the flag of "their" countries. The venture proved to be profitable, as well as enjoyable; they collected a total of $30.00 to be used toward a trip to France. The most popular countries - Ireland, Germany, and Italy.

The Arts

The Home Economics department offers a variety of courses aimed at preparing for further education and adapting to life after classroom days. Classes in Foods and Nutrition, Child Development and Child Care, Interior Decorating, Marriage and Family Relationships, Sewing and Textiles, and Singles Living are offered to students in grades nine to twelve. Students in sewing classes participate in an annual fashion show; the winners go on to District and State Competitions.

Approximately two hundred students take Music courses. The program includes Band, Chorus, Concert and Stage Bands, Instrumental Instruction and Ensembles, Theory, Music Appreciation, Choral Ensembles, and the a Capella Choir. This year, a new teacher and band director, Mr. McNaughton, provided innovative direction in that area. An Honors Chorus was selected from choral members.

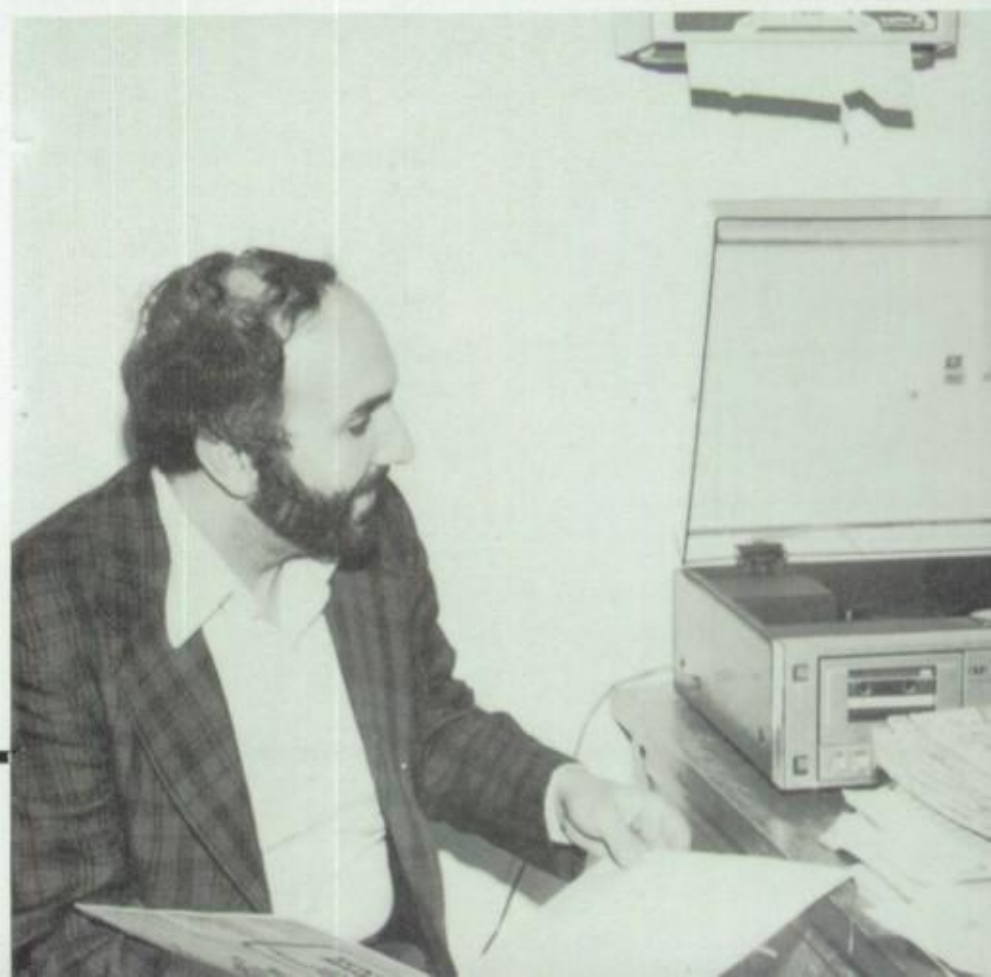

Art classes have attracted many students on an elective basis, in addition to the required classes in the lower grades. This year approximately 425 students are involved in this curriculum. They may choose from Art electives, Ceramics, Dimensional Design, and Graphics and Design. A new course, Advanced Drawing and Painting, has interested a number of juniors and seniors. Those interested in sculpture forms have elected to take Dimensional Design. Students in the various art programs have contributed greatly to other areas of the school, painting murals for the halls and the gym, and drawing designs for school publications, school plays and musicals. They have provided assistance to teachers with lettering and posters, and painted scenery for school productions. A number of our Art students have qualified for membership in The National Art Honor Society.

The Industrial Arts program includes required course work for younger students, but many students elect to take varied, advanced courses throughout their years in high school. Wood and Metal Shop classes are offered; an independent study course in either area is also available. Architectural Drawing and Mechanical Drawing are valuable to the students who hope to go on in these areas. A publicly acknowledged course, Solar Energy and Construction, has created great interest and prompted many students to take advantage of Mr. Huston's expertise on this subject.

More than 450 students in grades nine through twelve are enrolled in various Business programs. For the business student, there are three alternative programs; for the academic student, there are many elective courses that will prepare him for college programs in a business major. This year a QYX Word Processor and an Electronic Typewriter have been added to the facilities of this department. Students in the business curriculum have expanded their skills by working on the Yearbook with typing and ad work, by working on the school funds program, and by acting in secretarial capacities for other departments during the school year.

All students are enrolled in Social Studies. World Cultures courses have been converted into semester courses so students may select areas which interest them. This department facilitates The Presidential Classroom Program, is involved in the Student Forum activities, and works with students hosting foreign exchange students. The Geneology Club has evolved from the U.S. Cultures course. Although the teachers in this curriculum have to overcome traveling from room to room for each class and teaching three or four different types of courses each day, they maintain high interest and continue to motivate the students.

In Physical Education all students participate, with the addition of electives for juniors and seniors. There are advanced courses in aquatics and water safety. Regular class time is used for stressing lifetime sports skills, and activities are designed to increase total fitness. This year gym aides have been added. Student activity clubs have developed, such as volleyball, aerobics, swimming, and jogging. In Health classes a team approach is used to instruct students in the following areas: Personal Fitness, First Aid and Medical Self-Help, Human Reproduction and Sex Education, Cardio Pulmonary Resuscitation, and Mental Health and Personality Development.

Tech School

North Montco Vocational Technical School

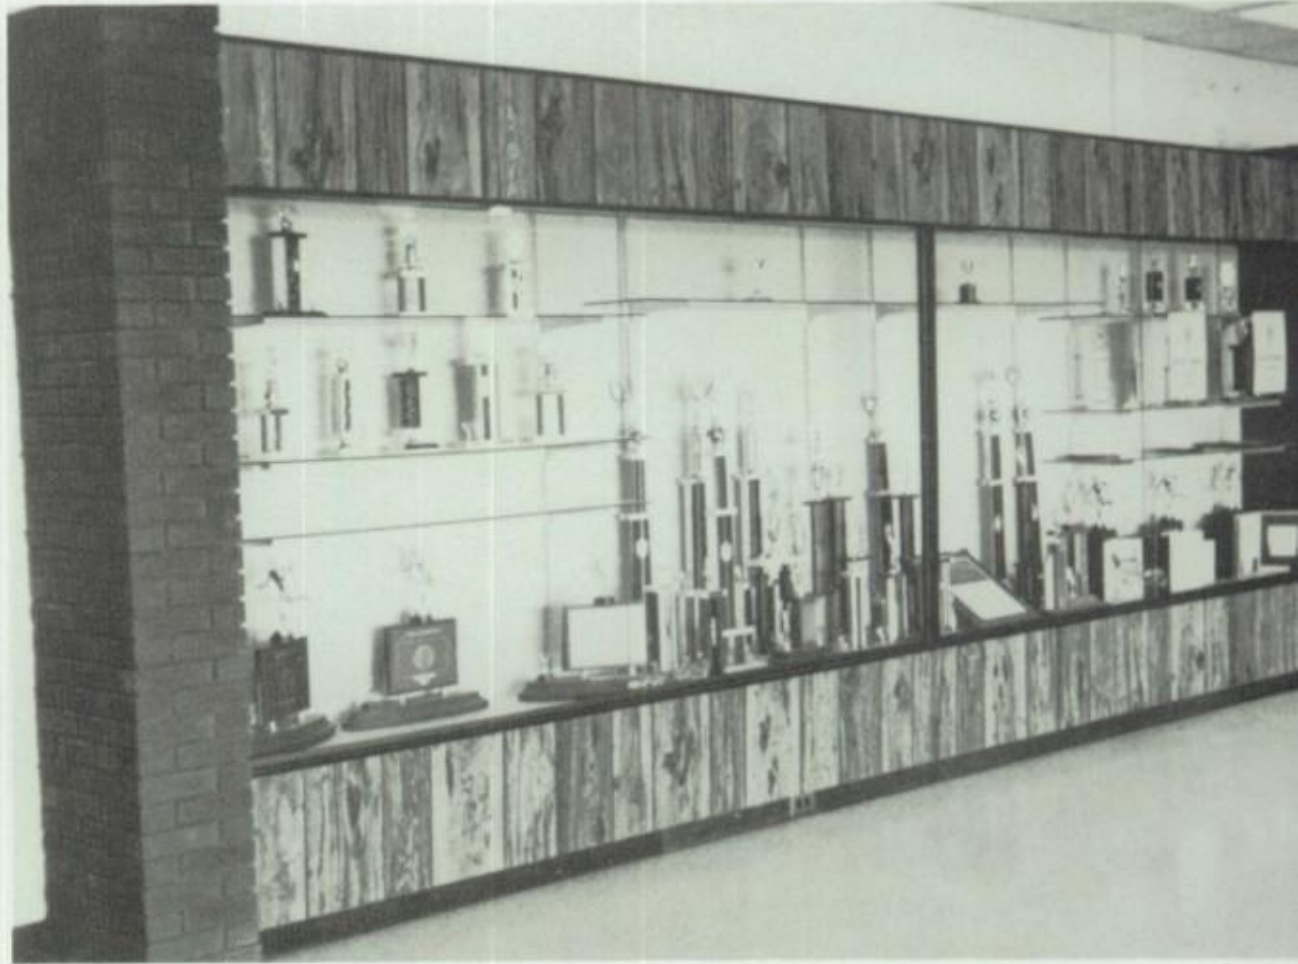

One Hundred of our students attend the high school after spending the first part of each school day at Tech School in Lansdale.

North Montco was established to provide vocational and technical occupational training. Students receive 540 hours per year training for their chosen occupation. In addition to learning a skilled trade, students may still qualify for college entrance in post-secondary education.

Admission to North Montco is determined by the Guidance Department. Candidates are chosen by their likelihood to succeed in their chosen field.

Most of our students attending Tech School are involved in three year courses beginning in tenth grade. There are also several two year courses for eleventh and twelfth grade students.

Vocational courses range from Auto Body Repair to Welding; Technical courses range from Building Construction to Electronic Technology.

Above: The new trophy case in the lobby was planned and constructed by some of our Tech students: Bob and Ron Morott, Carl Capobianco, and Rich Monappella.

Below: Tech students also constructed this brick school identification sign on Route 29 in front of the school.

CO-OP Program

P.V. Initiates Another Successful Program

Mr. Pearson, CO-OP Program director, makes calls to help place students in suitable jobs.

Quite a few PV students work in and around the community as part of their senior year learning experience. These students are involved in the CO-OP Program under the direction of Mr. Pearson.

This program is designed to provide an opportunity for qualifying seniors to develop valuable job skills as part of their twelfth grade course of study. This is accomplished through a supervised program of on-the-job training combined with related classwork.

The students spend the morning in school, following regular schedules like any other student. After completing these classes, they go to work.

This year's CO-OP students are involved in a variety of work experiences. They are training in areas of office practice, auto body repair, dental assistance, nursing, food services, auto mechanics, and retailing, to name just a few.

In many instances the training received results in solid career opportunities. At the very least, the CO-OP students gain priceless experience to help them survive in the world of work.

Accenting Excellence, increasing standards, and raising expectations were among our goals this year. Success in these areas involved the combined efforts of school board members, administrators, teachers, students, and parents.

Early in September it became apparent that innovation and revitalization in curriculum and programs were major priorities. One innovation, the Activity Period, required everyone's cooperation. New clubs and intramural sports, in addition to previously organized extra-curricular groups, were made available to all students.

The Discipline Code, with the addition of positive incentives - a privilege system for the upper class students, was approved and put into practice. The number of assemblies for both instruction and entertainment was increased.

Academically, a new district-wide testing program was adopted which included the testing of all ninth grade students early in the fall. The physical education and English programs were updated, with teachers attending summer curriculum revision sessions. For the first time foreign languages were offered to qualifying eighth grade students while the advanced mathematics program continued in operation for eighth through twelfth grade students. Advanced Biology was added to the science program, and double laboratory periods provided academic students with extended learning experiences.

In the true spirit of the Viking we made our school a better place; we accepted the challenge, planned the route, and found success.

Accent On Excellence

To be the best that you can be is to excel. By raising expectations and providing the means to achieve far-reaching goals, our faculty contributed to many positive changes this year.

Teachers, administrators, and students met on a regular basis with one primary purpose - to help Perkiomen Valley students excel in every way. For the first time students received commendations of excellence in academic work. New eligibility rules imposed strict educational standards for those involved in sports and activities. Additional advanced academic programs were developed to provide a more challenging learning atmosphere.

Because education is an all-encompassing term, our teachers also encouraged excellence on the fields of competition and performance.

Teachers, dedicated teachers, have given the students at PV the tools and the directions necessary to excel.

Exchange Students Find U. S.

What would it be like to spend a year in a foreign country? Ask any of our three foreign exchange visitors, and she will tell you. Our high school is hosting Helena Andersson from Sweden, Petra Jensch from Germany, and Tamami Sone from Japan.

Helena is staying with the Slotterback family. In Sweden she attends Tibble Gymnasium, a secondary school, where each class is forty minutes. Helena came here through the ASSE, American Scandinavian Student Exchange. She says it costs $2,000. to come here; the host family receives nothing for having an exchange student, except experience. Helena receives no credit for her work in the USA, but she feels she does learn about the culture and behavior of the American people. She also feels there is a great deal to learn in school. To her the American school has more discipline, but it is also easier to talk with the teachers. There is no such thing as a Yearbook in Sweden. Helena wishes every student could have the opportunity to spend a year in another country.

Tamami Sone, a sixteen year-old senior, was selected to represent Yamanashi Eiva Gakwin High School. She finds life at the Phillips' household a tremendously new and exciting experience. The best place to find Tamami is sitting in a quiet spot listening to American Rock or working hard on schoolwork. She is eager to try everything that passes her way, even though she is a little shy. Tamami left her younger brother, older sister, and parents in Japan where her parents operate a wine shop and gas station. Tamami has been heard to say that she hates American boys who have moustaches and beards. In February, Tamami moved from the Phillips to the Peck household.

Petra Jensch is fifteen years old and lives in Germany near Frankfurt. She attends Intergrierte Gesamtschule G-G, a ten-year school. After leaving school, Petra hopes to get an English-related job. She lived with the Romasco family during her three month stay in America. She enjoyed attending PV and made many friends. Petra was impressed with our culture and fashions.

Mrs. Hofmeister is Class Advisor for Tenth Grade. This year the class conducted its dues drive in the fall and again in the spring.

Christmas ornaments were made and sold as a fundraising activity. Students volunteered to make the attractive wreaths, angels, and reindeer.

Secret Admirers Day, complete with flowers, was a huge success for Valentine's Day; and the freeze-pop sale helped combat the early summer heat.

The class goal is to bring the entire sophomore class and the school closer together.

Junior Class Officers. Brian Horrocks, President; Mr. Keenan, Advisor; Beth O'Donnell, Secretary; Johanna Beres, Treasurer; Becky Walters, Vice-President.

The Class of '83 sponsored the Fall Play, "The Mouse That Roared." Not only was the play enjoyable; it was a financial success for the class. Replicas of the "Battle Axe" were sold to all students before the Thanksgiving Day football game with Methacton. The "Battle Axe" is the award traditionally given to the victor of that game; unfortunately, Methacton won this year.

During the Christmas season, our class sponsored activities to help the needy, the old, and the lonely people, to brighten their holiday season.

During Spirit Week, the Junior Class honored the Girls' Hockey Team, presenting each of the girls and coaches corsages. We also honored them with decorated cakes in honor of their very successful season.

The grand finale of the year was the Junior-Senior Prom at Westover Country Club. The Junior Class Prom Committee did a superb job, making this a night to remember.

Junior Charles Garber received the Haley Football Award for his outstanding play against Souderton.

The Class of 1982 has contributed much to Perkiomen Valley High School. As a group, they've been cooperative and industrious in all facets of their educational years.

Promoting school spirit and pride was their goal, and this Class of '82 began in September of last year to bring about the rebirth of enthusiasm at PV.

Under the very capable leadership of Steve Robinson, they accomplished great things. A most tireless worker, Steve put in many hours to make this a memorable year for his class.

For Homecoming we had our first "king." The response to the dues drive and mug sales was equally successful, thanks to the push and drive of Steve and his committees.

Birchwood, January 23, 1982 - the Winter Ball was enjoyed by all in attendance. The cooperation of the class members was evident in the centerpieces and other arrangements that made the evening go so smoothly.

This Senior Class has made us proud, and we wish each one the best in the future.

This year Perkiomen Valley has ten seniors enrolled in the College Program. Designed for seniors only, the program enables students who show added responsibility and ability to attend one of several colleges.

Eight seniors attend Ursinus College and two attend Montgomery County Community College. Transportation and tuition are the responsibilities of the student.

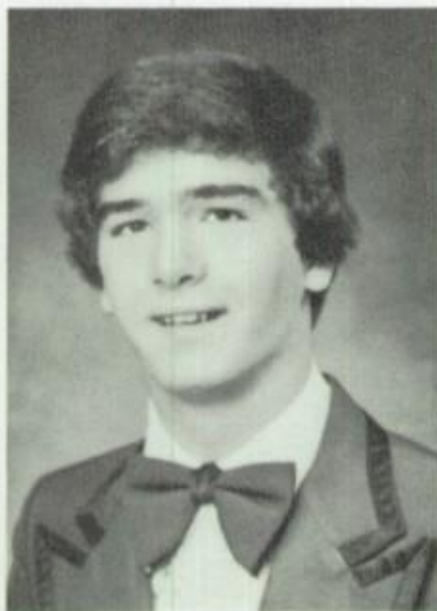

In addition to receiving high school credit for English courses, they also receive college credit. Each student will enter college next year with six to twelve advance credits. One student is also taking Political Science.

This head-start program is beneficial in that the seniors can finish high school and begin college at the same time.

Tracie Hassinger was fortunate enough to have had the opportunity to live and attend school in Japan during her junior year. Below she expresses her feelings about that year.

"Japan. It's half way around the world and has its own unique culture. Who would ever imagine I'd be living there for a year? Nothing could have prepared me for this experience. But I wouldn't trade that one year for anything.

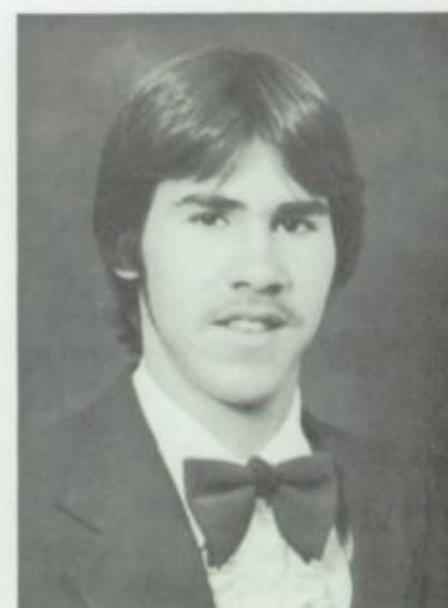

Japan is a modern community that excels in electronics' trade but refuses to let its beautiful customs go beyond the country's physical limits. Living there gives one a chance to experience some of these customs. Japanese food is another great experience.

I urge anyone considering the Japanese experience to look into our high school's exchange policy."

IN MEMORIAM
 For when the One Great Scorer comes,
 To write against your name,
 He writes not that you lost or won,
 But how you played the game.

Mr. Wiser is seen above offering his most sincere congratulations and appreciation to Joanne Kehs. Joanne is the only graduating member of Perkiomen Valley's State Champion Girls' Cross Country team.

Jennifer Phillips, Colleen Coll, Joe DeSimone, Joanne Kehs, Jana Shellington.

Five members of the Class of '82 were selected to represent our high school in Washington, D.C. at A Presidential Classroom For Young Americans.

The Presidential Classroom provides concentrated study of United States government through direct exposure and personal contact with the institutions and leaders of the nation.

The program seeks to create an awareness of the problems of modern democratic government; a greater understanding of American legislative, executive, and judicial processes; and a humanized appreciation of the political relationships and influences that shape our system of government.

Hoping

The time has come to look over the vast ocean of life,
What we have overcome, and what we have yet to surpass.
We have come to the crossroads of the future,
With only our dreams to guide us to the fulfillment of our goals.
We hope and pray that the choices we make now,
Are those that will satisfy
our desire for happiness.
May we never be suppressed
by the hopeless,
Or afraid to go forth into new and different experiences.
And may our lives portray the image of a new generation,
One that is full of hope,
for every tomorrow.

In The True Spirit Of The Viking, They

What can one say about a friend, confidant, parent-figure, buddy, or boss after she retires?

This question was posed to an assortment of faculty members and students. Their reflections follow:

"She let us sing 'Eppie-O' in the Talent Show."

"She cut me more than a few breaks."

"No comment."

"I liked her even though she gave me too many detentions."

"She was fair — I guess she was OK."

"I thought it was great that she was so peppy at 7th period pep rallies; we knew it was the last place she wanted to be on a Friday afternoon."

"She always told me the truth."

"She invented Privilege Cards."

"She was nice; of course, I was never in trouble."

"My buddy."

"I could go in to talk to her."

"Kiss Boy - sorry I never met him."

"I was glad that she kept a lot of thoughts to herself."

"She loved the kids."

"I especially liked her purple clothes."

"A job well done."

"She didn't believe me even when I was telling the truth, but I don't blame her."

"She had quite a sense of humor."

"We appreciated her genuine interest in us as people and in our families."

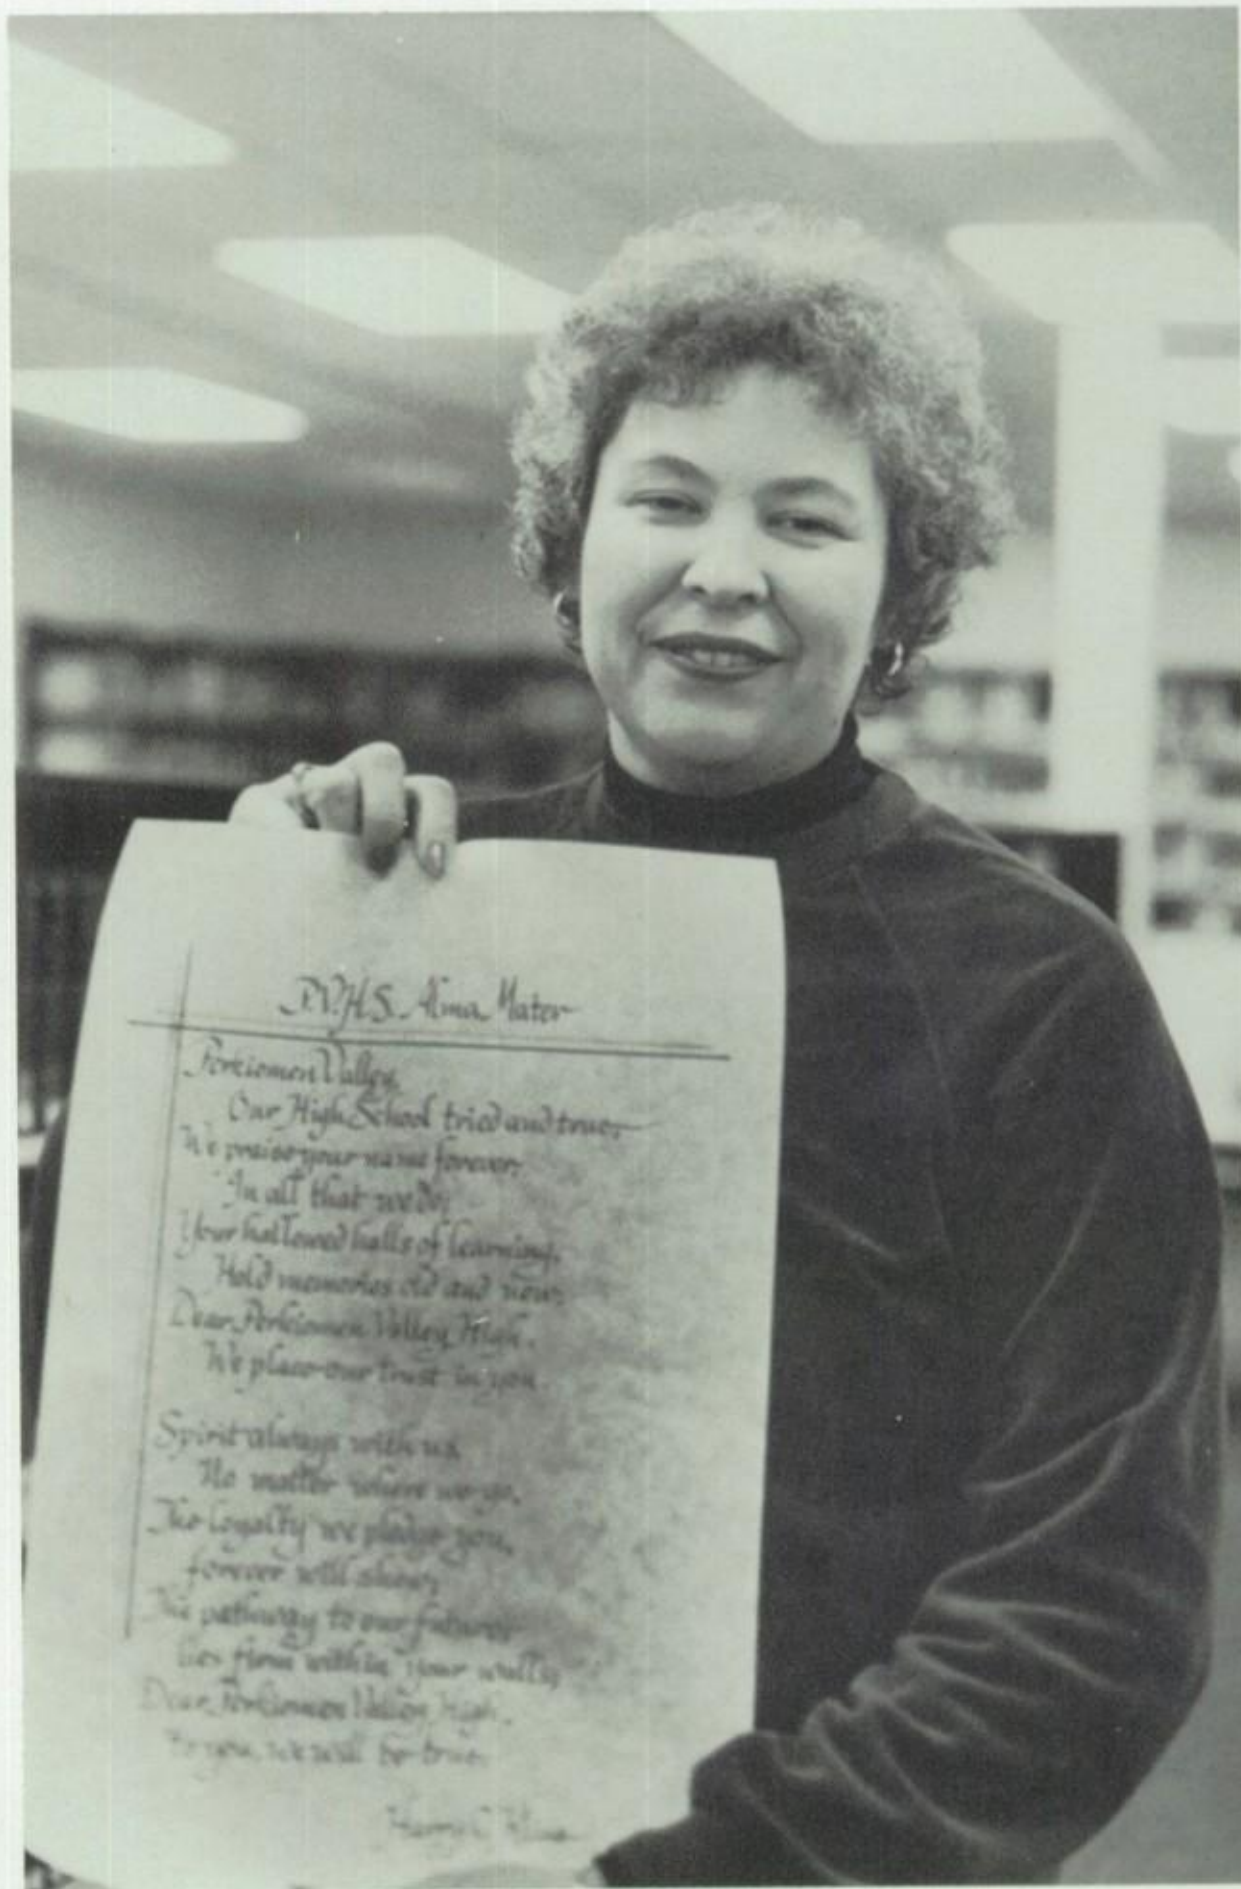

"Those were my clothes she called tacky in the musical."

"Now who will understand the problems associated with my activity!"

"It was her grin, what a grin! It told the whole story."

"Many of us knew her as a raw recruit."

The consensus — We miss you and wish you the best!

Above: A most appropriate picture shows Miss Schaeffer holding her permanent copy of our Alma Mater. Presented to her by the English Department, this memento should bring her quite a few whimsical thoughts.

Left: A familiar pose for our Assistant Principal, Miss Schaeffer spent untold hours helping our high school students.

Accept The Challenge And Set Their Goals

Above: Good-byes were in order for Miss Schaeffer while Mr. McNamara was welcomed at a get-together in their honor. Mr. Manley is pictured with Miss Schaeffer and Mr. McNamara.

Below: A very affable person, Mr. McNamara quickly strikes up a conversation with Mr. Szuhaj.

May Their Dreams Become Reality
